

The 1946
Zephyr

The Zephyr • 1946

WEST END HIGH SCHOOL • NASHVILLE, TENN.

D E D I C A T I O N

To the future generations who will be the hope of the world, and who will carry on the work and traditions in these hallowed halls, we sincerely and reverently dedicate this 1946 Zephyr with the fervent hope that they will be able to succeed in maintaining lasting world peace and brotherhood.

Dr. W. H. Yarbrough

F O R E W O R D

Your immediate and most important task as the graduating class of 1946, is to dedicate your intellectual efforts to the understanding and strengthening of all international relationships, in order to establish a firm and lasting peace. If you should fail as my generation failed, there is little hope for mankind.

Your friend,

You have become a traveler now, brave heart;
A single piece of parchment made it so;
In amber clouds of dawn it has its start,
The road ahead, and you are free to go.
Your eyes are golden east, but look again
Where ragged purple clouds now dim the west,
In that vague distance lies your journeys end;
Beneath the purple hills will you find rest.
The road that separates the two is long,
And on its way will come work's weariness;
But if, within your soul, you have a song,
There will be for the heart-break, happiness.
Brave heart, just sing this song your youth began,
And you will reach the purple hills, a man.

DEDICATION OF SPORTS SECTION

With all due respect we dedicate the sports section of our Zephyr to "the man with the hoe" and "the man with the whip." Together they have given our school sports renown, and one of the best lighted fields in the state, to say nothing of Strickland's victory record. They have given gloriously of their time and effort. Dr. Yarbrough, Coach Strickland, accept now the thanks of those who have played and are yet to play under the West High uniforms.

COACH STRICKLAND

DR. YARBROUGH

THE FOOTBALL SEASON

I know you, for whom this annual is for, do not need a written account of each game, but just as many pictures as possible to bring back memories: "Lawerence through the line, Adcock and Atkinson going up for those passes, Mason throwing that block." I'll be as brief as possible; here are the highlights:

Boyce Smith's "Yellow Jackets came down to let us taste the sting of defeat on our dedication.

The toughest break a team could have turned a victory to defeat. A ninety-nine yard run by Dumwright of Cohn just as we knocked at the gates of victory!

Our line won its merit as we battled MBA to a 0-0 deadlock. Gaining new determination from the contest, we were now ripe for victory—Mason joined the fray, corset and all.

After being outplayed for the first half we socked back to a 19-12 win over Central under our beautiful floodlights—Lawerence lead the tallying.

My Gosh, they're big! The Blue and Grey machine now really begins to roll as we beat the big, and I don't use the word loosely, North Yanks. Very much of the credit goes to Coach for relieving the locker room tension.

Still carrying a grudge against Hillsboro for the defeat of 1943 we smothered the Burros 26-6, which made us all feel real warm inside. Mason was injured early in the game.

How very pretty our Homecoming Queen looked as we barely beat the jinx to send Litton to a 20-13 defeat. A real good parade terminating in a bonfire upped the spirit of the "Jays."

A slight prayer for revenge in the future.

Clarksville invited us up, fed us "poke chops" and then proceeded to beat us 28-0 in a swimming meet.

Perhaps our best performance of the year was against the powerful Ryan T formation. Alternating between a seven and an eight man line, West held a 13-0 advantage until the last half. We'll all remember the suspense of those extra points. Ryan sparked in the last half to gain a 13-13 tie.

With Richard Smith taking over as captain we dealt our traditional cross town rivals a severe defeat. With touchdowns by Mason, Adcock, Cortner, we climaxed a spirited season.

For the statistics, the schedule follows:

One, two, three, kick—who ever heard of a line shifting—sweat, dust, more sweat, and lots more dust—Blood! mine Gawd!—what a crowd!

O. K. boys, just three weeks' time so really bear down. First day—Mason can't take it—moonlight practices—Mason's in the hospital, oh no.

The quiet that overcame us all when we learned of Donald Webb's death. Everybody wanting to say something to Ronald at the funeral—he didn't have to wrap 'em so tight—I'm nervous—my toes turning blue—"Fox is still in there"—warming up under new lights—but they can't win—I'm going home—

No Drumwright "catch en"—How in the hell did that happen—Let's don't ever hold our heads up—not around Atkinson's end. Go get em', Bill—in the back field—Tighten up your corset strings, Johnny—Well, we held them—

Atta boy, Lawrence! Tornado was just a big blow!—Capt. Bill wins a toss—

What happened to all the towels—what's that blonde doing on the bus—Atkinson corner—North locker room—"but it was mine"—(except from Coach's joke—"I'll just skate off, thanks")—That's what you get for sticking your head out the window—"throw it"—"water, water"—not another scrimmage—just a couple of laps—"Linebaugh, get back on side"—Can't that Mayes go?—you mean that's all we get to eat?—it's still raining—Splosh! cold wet mud in your eye—cold showers—Ain't Ryan going to be surprised—was it good!! bring your blankets, boy—the way the Alma Mater sounded as we rounded the curve for the last time—letters—

For the second time West has climbed to the pinnacle of basketball success, and climaxed the school's most spectacular year with the state championship. A season highlighted by stellar performers and record smashing team work.

As a pre-season favorite, we traveled a rough and hotly contested race to capture the Interscholastic trophy—one more such victory gains the coveted award as permanent property of West End High—

West lost only two games throughout the year, to Ryan and to Cohn in the Ryan gym, and then continued through the tournament undefeated.

Playing such high caliber basketball that most of the clubs were downed by comfortable margins, West successively won the district, unit, regional and state crowns.

Averaging 47 points per tilt in the tournaments, Adcock, Moneypenny and Lawrence were named all-state; but equal honor goes to the two level-headed defensively minded guards, Mason and Mayes.

Just a paragraph to Billy Hoe Adcock, who is undoubtedly the best all-round high school cager of the last decade. He is a two year all-stater, who will remain among the greatest of West High's greatest.

FEATURES

Overton Lea and Jane Lepley—
In senior dignity they play leading roles;

George Bates and Barbara Jewell—
This pair seem most likely to reach their goals.

Bobby Cortner and Eleanor Miller—
At every school function
you'll see these two;

Richard Smith and Dorothy
Ann Wright—
This couple is tops in all that they do.

Frank Leavell and Patsy Jones—School Spirit and pep these kids have got;

Billy Joe Adcock and Dorothy Frank—
They boast school fame as an accurate shot.

Darrel McCormick and Mildred Bethshares—
You always hear "hubba"
wherever they pass;

Tewky Booth and Evelyn Coker—
Their bright personalities shine first in the class.

Jimmy Shaub and Donna Lee Ralls—
There's a friendly smile for each person they see;

Tommy Smith and Betty Jo Atchley—
Their witty remarks turn sorrow to glee.

A T I V E S

Luttrell Thomas and Mary Lou Box—
These two are reserved, and a little bit shy;

Frank Myers and Wayne Hammond—
The neatness of this pair catches your eye.

MISS WEST HIGH

MISS AVERAGE WEST HIGH

Alice Allen was chosen to be the typical West Hi Co-ed in a contest held in December. The contest was sponsored by the "West Wind," and compiled the descriptions, likes, and dislikes of all the Junior and Senior girls. Alice was the most suited to the average.

Alice is a brunette, 5' 3" tall and weighs 112 pounds. She likes fried chicken, lemon chiffon pie, Harry James, June Allyson and Gene Kelley.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of '46 of West End High School, being of sound mind (at least before becoming a member of the Zephyr staff) and body, do declare this to be our last will and testament, in such manner as follows:

Article I. We, the seniors, bestow all the happiness, trials, and tribulations of being upperclassmen to the unsuspecting juniors of same school.

Article II. Certain individuals wish to bequeath the following items to the undergraduates:

We, BOBBY CORTNER, RICHARD MOORES, and TOMMY SMITH, leave our membership in the "Hawk Club" to BILLY LAWRENCE and any other person who feels willing to accept the responsibility of a true "Hawk."

I, MILTON CARNEY, do hereby bequeath my diplomatic abilities (apple polishing) to NANCY WHITE.

We, GEORGE LINEBAUGH and HENRY READ, leave for a prolonged visit with our Uncle . . . Ah!

I, BILLY JOE NEAL, do hereby leave my comb and brush to BOBBY AKERS for that "smooth, manly, well-groomed look!"

We, JAMES BALLENTINE, JOHN SISK, BILL RITTER, HARRY FRITH, and EUGENE BARTO, leave our places of honor in the "Fag Forum" to DEWITT BELTON and BILL SMITH, feeling certain they will keep up its prestige.

We, NELL CARNEY and SARA BREWER, leave our "swing and sway" down the hall to DORSEY PARKS (she needs it!).

We, DARRYL McCORMICK and FRANK MYERS, leave in our limosines (?) in hopes they will last until we can invest in a jeep.

We, LUTTRELL THOMAS, TOMMY DONNER, JEAN CAROL O'DONNELL, and MARJORIE BIRCHER, bequeath our brains to the biology classes to see if they can determine what makes them tick.

We, FINNEY and SMITH, BETHSHARES and BOOTH, GILL and LOVELL, BOONE and BENNETT, MAUPIN and MASON, and LIGHTMAN and LIGHTMAN, positively refuse to leave each other, so will leave together.

I, ELINOR (POLLY) MILLER, leave my man troubles to anyone who has the courage to figure them out.

I, NANCY CORNELIUS, leave a book of air mail stamps to anyone else who has a man in Hawaii.

We, OVERTON LEA, JODY FULLERTON and PATSY JONES, leave our "always wrong" alarm clocks to the repair man.

We, BILLY JOE ADCOCK and DONALD WRIGHT, leave our ability to "charm" Ward Belmont lassies to any guy who will keep the trade secrets.

We, D. A. WRIGHT and GERALD ROGERS, leave to build a vine-covered cottage and establish a Chicken Farm. (Tea for Two!)

We, DOROTHY SULZBACKER and ELLA JORDAN, bequeath our giggles and gossip to the Junior High girls.

I, BETTY ANN OGILVIE, leave taking my humor and jokes with me. (Thank goodness!)

We, EVELYN COKER and JANE LEPLEY, gladly leave the lunchroom tables in as big a mess as we found them.

We, JENNY GRAHAM and BELL OWEN, leave Miss Matthews to future entomologists.

We, BOB BRUECK and FRANK LEAVELL, leave our positions on the cheering squad with a sigh of relief.

I, BOBBY JONES, leave my "stripes and whistle" with hopes that I shall never have to don khaki again!

I, EWING FRAZIER, leave my white saddle shoes and a bottle of Griffin (plug!) to CARL FINNEY.

I, PEGGY DU PRE, leave the West Wind coming out a few days late.

I, MARY FRANCES TYSON, leave "that certain something" to anyone who needs it.

We, ANNE SHAW, JEAN ROSSELL, JOAN SMITH, CHARLES MADER and KENNETH BUMPAS, leave our quiet manner to those two "angels" JIMMY LINEBAUGH and JIMMY ROBINSON.

I, JEAN HAMILTON, depart in my car with smoke and females pouring out the windows.

I, JERRY DAVIS, leave my love for identification bracelets to JANE FINGER.

I, ALBERT REGEN, leave my spicy stories to BOB BURGESSON in order that next year will not be dull.

I, JAMES McBRIDE, leave my "right hook and fancy footwork" to EUGENE ALBRIGHT.

of the Class of 1946 . . .

I, BILLY HENDERSON, leave the problems of the "tall lad" (he found it lonesome all alone up in the stratosphere) to FREDDY VINCENT.

I, JEANETTE FUQUA, leave a hundred Blue Horse Notebook Covers to DICK JONES as a last resort for graduation.

We, WALTER MILES, SALLY CARNAHAN, BARBARA FERRELL, and JANE BUTTERFIELD, leave our flaming tresses to MISS BOYD, having found them "too hot to handle."

I, ALICE ALLEN, leave my "typical tastes" to the future BOBBY SOXERS of this Sainted Alma Mater.

I, GILMAN SCHUMAKER, would leave my bicycle but fear it may come in handy.

We, GEORGE BATES and JIMMY SHAUB, leave $(\frac{1}{4})^2$ of our mathematical genius to ROY TOMKINS and CANNON MAYES (take over, MISS HARRIS).

I, KENNETH GROOMS, leave my "Scarlet Glow" makeup to MARY JANE GILBERT.

I, RUSSELL "TWINKLE TOES" HUGHES, leave in hopes of succeeding ARTHUR MURRAY in tripping the light fantastic.

I, WAYNE HAMMOND, leave my "band box" appearance to ANNE LITTLE.

We, BETTY BROWN, CARL MILLS, BOB BALDRIDGE and PAUL DINKINS, leave MISS O'CALLAHAN "without a song."

I, JIM "MEATBALL" FOX, leave to join MESSIE BESSIE.

We, ELSYE WEIL, MARY LOUISE WERNER and WILMA WEST, leave our dropped stitches and balls of yarn to BEVERLY GRIFFIN and REECY DAVIS to keep future classes as noisy as they have been in the past.

We, ANN MILTON, CAROLYN TIPTON, GRACE HELEN BEASLEY, JAMES BELLAMY and JIMMY RAGAN, leave the D. O. classes with pockets that "Jingle Jangle Jingle."

I, DAVID BEAVER, leave my dam.

I, BETTY COKER, leave the Dramatic Club to TEDDY NUNES and SHAKESPEARE.

I, RICHARD TENZEL, bequeath my ability to pester anyone and everyone to BUGS BUNNY.

I, DOROTHY GRIGSBY, leave my petite looks and manner to Glenere Wolfe.

We, ANN CRAIG, LIBBY GRAF, MILDRED WHITTSETT, CAROLYN RICHARDSON,

JACKIE WALBURG and IVEY JEAN MULLER, bequeath our package of "Gertie's Golden Glow" to the gentlemen who prefer blonds.

We, MARY ELLEN ROBINSON and BETTY ANN McCONNELL, leave our lovely smiles to Ipana.

I, CAROLYN STRING, leave my southern drawl to MISS DEMBSKY.

I, DONNA RALLS, leave MISS AUSBAN with fond memories and deep regret.

We, LIBBY WILSON and DORIS MONTGOMERY, leave the halls of West without our friendly presence.

I, RALPH COHN, leave my sketches of Mickey Mouse on my notebook cover with hopes of helping Petty draw calendars.

I, JACK HOBBS, bequeath the "Zephyr" (gentle breeze) which has seemed like a "Hurricane" (furious breeze) to me!

I, BOBBY SHARP, leave my P. C. schedule to anyone who has the brains and who hates to get up in the morning. (Tell us, how'd you pull those strings, BOBBY?)

I, NAOMI VANCE, leave my height to SONYA KANTER.

I, JIMMY LEVOY, leave my box of Wheaties to SUPERMAN.

I, ALBERT JARRET, simply leave—

I, SHIRLEY JOHNSON, leave English Literature as far behind me as possible.

We, SHELIA BARSKIN and THELMA LAPIDUS, leave our good-looking clothes to the French Relief (Miss Battle please note!)

I, ANN GILES, leave to become head nurse in a large hospital.

I, BILL BLACKFORD, leave hoping to own the Newspaper Printing Corporation, someday!

Article III. We, the Willmakers, bequeath our dulled pencils, brain fragments, and nervous breakdowns to the poor unfortunate persons to follow in our footsteps with sincere pity and a box of aspirin.

Article IV. We, the seniors, leave—our hearts full of regret—with thanks to Dr. Yarbrough, the faculty and the student body!

Prophecy of Class of 1946

Leave us face it, members of the senior class of 1946; time is time and Time Marches On, so let us sashay into the future and see what the year 1956 has in store for the most outstanding senior class of 1946.

It is New Year's Eve, and as we approach the entrance of "Peeping Tom Smith's Hawk Club" for a gala evening, our cab door is opened by none other than JACK DORMAN, the doorman, who pushes us inside where those two cute hatcheck girls, BETTY COKER and JOYCE THOMAS, relieve us of our hats and coats. JAMES BELLIOUS, the headwaiter, courteously shoves us to our table. Scarcely have we given our order to the waiter, who we discover to be "Flaming Red" WALTER MILES; when the lights grow dim and we see none other than the M. C. himself, A. RICHARD SMITH, who introduces that famous band leader, HENRY OVERSTREET "Water Boy" BOOTH, Jr. HENRY, accompanied by his charming, hysterical bride, MILDRED "Queenie" BETHSHARES, really sends us with his saxophone rendition of "The White Cliffs of Dover."

Suddenly we hear the wild screams of the D. M. F. C. (DARREL McCORMICK Fan Club), and "Frankie" himself steps to the mike. On recovering from our swoons we look up to see a row of shapely appendages. It is the chorus line, led by the queen, OLGA FINNEY, who is followed closely by those beauties, ALICE ALLEN, BETTY JO ATCHLEY, MARY JANE BUTTERFIELD, WAYNE HAMMOND, JEAN HAMILTON and JODY FULLERTON.

At a ringside table, gazing goggle-eyed at the bevy of beauties, we find DAVID "Eager" BEAVER, panting "Passionate" RICHARD MOORES and such suave Casanovas as BILLY JOE ADCOCK, WILLIE RITTER, DONALD WRIGHT, and JIMMY SHAUB. The climax of this charming exhibition is a bubble dance by "Butterfly" WHITSITT and DORIS MONTGOMERY. No sooner have they reached the center of the stage however, than they dash screaming to the wings, having spied ALBERT REGEN loping across the floor grasping a hat pin.

After pushing our eyes back in their sockets we let our gaze wander to the dance floor, and there we see the grocery store magnet, HAROLD LOVELL, leading the conga line with his wife, SARA GILL. Also prominent in the line of dancers is that world-renowned dancing instructor, RUSSELL "Twinkle-toes" HUGHES, who has as his partner the ravishing beauty, SHIRLEY BROWNE.

At a table which commands a view of the whole floor, we spy GEORGE BATES and OVERTON LEA who are owner and society editor, respectively, of that widely-read New York paper, "The Daily Weekly." Mr.

Bates and Mr. Lea are being joined by the well-known bachelor trio, MYERS, HIERS, and BRUECK. Frank and Bill are still managing to keep one jump ahead of the female horde, but it is rumored that Dr. Brueck (author of the best seller, "Four Years Behind the Scalpel") has fallen for a blonde nurse.

Wishing to find out the latest dope on high society, we join this distinguished group. Overton has the following information to disclose:

TOMMY DONNER and LUTTRELL THOMAS will meet in Madison Square Garden to decide the heavyweigh, championship of the world. Luttrell is given a slight edge over Tommy because he has been under the strict training of JAMES BALLENTINE and EUGENE BARTO who have just concluded their vigorous campaign to prohibit the manufacture of cigarettes in the U. S.

SALLY CARNAHAN, eminent painter, has just finished her masterpiece "The Last Rose of Summer." Her model for the picture was SHIELA BARSKIN.

Since Ziegfeld died the owner and manager of the show are JOHNNY MASON and GERALD ROGERS and you can guess who are the stars of the Follies of '56—MARJORIE MAUPIN and D. A. WRIGHT, naturally. The show also features such beauties as: JEAN CARROL O'DONNELL, JEAN ROSSELL, BETTY ANN OGILVIE, JEAN BARNES, LOIS ASHFORD, and ANN CRAIG.

JANE LEPLY has recently taken over the editorship of the fashion magazine. Her staff consists of such literary geniuses as ANN GILES, JENNY GRAHAM, BELL OWEN, CAROLYN RICHARDSON, JACKY WOLBERG, LILA WALKER, EVA JEAN BIFFLE, BETTY BUCHANAN, ANN HODGE, and ANN SHAW. The artist for this fashionable magazine is JAMES DANIELS and he has as models those curvacious cuties, DONNA LEE RALLS, PATSY JONES, and LIBBY GRAF.

FRANK DILLARD, PAUL DINKINS, and ALBERT JARRAT have risen to first place on the list of Grand Old Opry favorites.

Overton tells us that the forthcoming Olympic meet will find BILL BLACKFORD, HARRY FRITH, JIMMY RAGAN, and CLARENCE REYNOLDS competing for the title "World's Champion Pool Shark."

ROY PRIMM and JIMMY FOX are currently engaged in a heated legal battle to determine which one shall rightfully be called "Meatball." Attorneys for Roy are MORTON SAGER, BOBBY SHARP, JOHN SISK and GILMAN SHUMAKER. Jimmy is represented by the firm of BORING, BUMPAS, CARNEY and COHEN.

Playboy BOBBY "Woman Killer" CORTNER, having worked his way through his first wife's fortune, is now casting about for someone to support him for the next ten years.

MARJORIE BIRCHER, brilliant psychiatrist, is trying to ease ELSYE WEIL's mental strain caused by her indecision as to which college she should attend. Also in Marjorie's appointment book are to be found MARY FRANCES TYSON and VIRGINIA VINSON who are half-crazy over the prospect of being old maids. Marjorie is ably assisted by her capable nurses, MARY LOU ARNOLD, JANE SCHWARTZ, CAROLYN TIPTON, JERRY DAVIS, and JEWELL BROWN.

BETTY BROWN, CARL MILLS and BOBBY BALDRIDGE are currently starring in the Metropolitan Opera. We hear their interpretation of "Carmen" is really hot.

After thanking Overton for his gab about the old gang we return to our table. The clock is just striking twelve and fond memories of the lunch periods in the good old days at West are brought to our minds as we are engulfed in the mad surge of celebration. Cutting capers with the crowd we see such demure individuals as JEAN DORIS GOLDMAN, who is standing on BETTY BRODNAX's shoulders, singing "Auld Lang Syne" at the top of her lungs.

The excitement of the evening is over now, so we bid a fond farewell to the "Hawk Club" and its owner and wander out into the cold, bleak streets.

On the corner a few blocks down is a newspaper stand, and a lonely bedraggled figure is huddled there in the cold. As we draw closer we realize that it is a woman, who looks faintly familiar. Peering into her face we recognize PEGGY DUPRE, who was editor of the "West Wind" in her more prosperous days. Peggy tells us that her husband, EDGAR WILKERSON, left her with six children to support, so we flip her a dime (a new one too, with F. D. R. on the front!) and meander down the street to a sign which says "Maxson's Marvelous Midnight Munchies." We stumble in, brace ourselves with a cup of coffee and flip open the paper to glance at the latest news. At the top of the front page, in two inch letters (headlines in other words) we find the startling proclamation "LINEBAUGH MUST BE STOPPED!" Upon further examination it is discovered that GEORGE LINEBAUGH, public enemy No. 1, has committed another atrocity. It seems that stool pigeon JIM LEVOY (alias "The Lip") was being held in the county jail, and squealed on his own gang, whereupon KENNETH GROOMS, BILLY "Stringbean McPole" HENDERSON, and BOBBY JONES were sent to rub him out. District Attorney JOHN L. MYERS said that the police have surrounded the hideout of this desperate gang of criminals and all women and children are warned to stay indoors.

Having exhausted the supply of news about this hideous turn of events, we focus our gaze upon the articles in smaller print—one discloses that BARBARA FERRELL and BARBARA JEWELL are running against each other for election to the Senate.

The sports page plays up the big prize fight of the year. Contender for the title is, of course, HERBY HONICK, whom we all "knew when."

Also in the realm of sports is mentioned ANN MILTON who is the tennis champ in the United States. Ann defeated ANNA MAI JONES in the finals and we expect that she will go on to even greater heights in this field.

In the classified section (don't you just love the ads?) there is a three-column spread which says, "Ladies, Face a Better Future With a Better Face! Come to LIGHTMAN & LIGHTMAN Beauty Shoppe." This place seems to have possibilities, for on the staff of beauty counselors are found such professionals as JOAN SMITH, CAROLYN STRINGE, DOROTHY GRIGSBY, and MARY ELLEN ROBERTSON. The manicurist is ELLA JORDAN, pedicurist BETTY ANN KENNEDY.

ON the back page of the paper is a big ad for the new circus that's wowing the country. Its owners are FRANK LEAVELL, JACK HOBBS, and BILLY JOE NEAL. The success of the circus rests on the shoulders of its many and brilliant entertainers such as NAOMI VANCE and NELL CARNEY, the midgets, SHIRLEY WATSON, the tight-rope walker, CAROLYN McGUIRE and IVY JEAN MULLER, bareback riders, MARY LOUISE WERNER and BETTY ANN McCONNELL, lion tamers, and of course the clowns, EWING FRAZIER, JAMES BELLAMY and AHRON LUCAS.

The poor newspaper is almost in shreds, by now, so we look down the counter to see if anyone of interest has come into the greasy little lunch room. Guess who is sitting there with her suitcase in one hand and bags under her eyes, none other than JEANETTE FUQUA! As you probably know, she has been following "Charley" around from port to port for lo! these many years. Knowing that Jeanette has been to all parts of the world, we settle down for a nice long conversation about the members of the old gang that she encountered on her extensive travels.

Jeanette tells us that on passing through Reno she saw ELEANOR MILLER on one of her annual visits to this "fair city of separation." Last seen, "Lizzy was trying to avoid the mad throng of male admirers."

At an obscure African port she ran into EVELYN COKER and HENRY READ, who went there to educate the Pygmies, having run out of other crazy things to do. They seem to be very happy, and only a little homesick.

NANCY CORNELIUS, owner of a Phi Beta Kappa key, is conducting a lecture tour in Europe. Heaven only knows what she's lecturing about.

Well, dear friends, the dawn is breaking now, and we must hurry home to make our New Year's Resolutions. Before we depart, however, we want to wish for you a bright and happy future, not at all like what we have predicted here.

HOME ROOM REPRESENTATIVES

STUDENT COUNCIL

The West High School Student Council, composed of a representative from each home room, meets once a week to discuss any problems that come before the school. These meetings are presided over by the president, Richard Smith. The vice president, Johnny Mason, has charge of the monitor system. Jane Lepley, secretary, and Evelyn Coker, treasurer, are the other officers. To work along with these, a representative is chosen from each home room.

M O N I T O R S

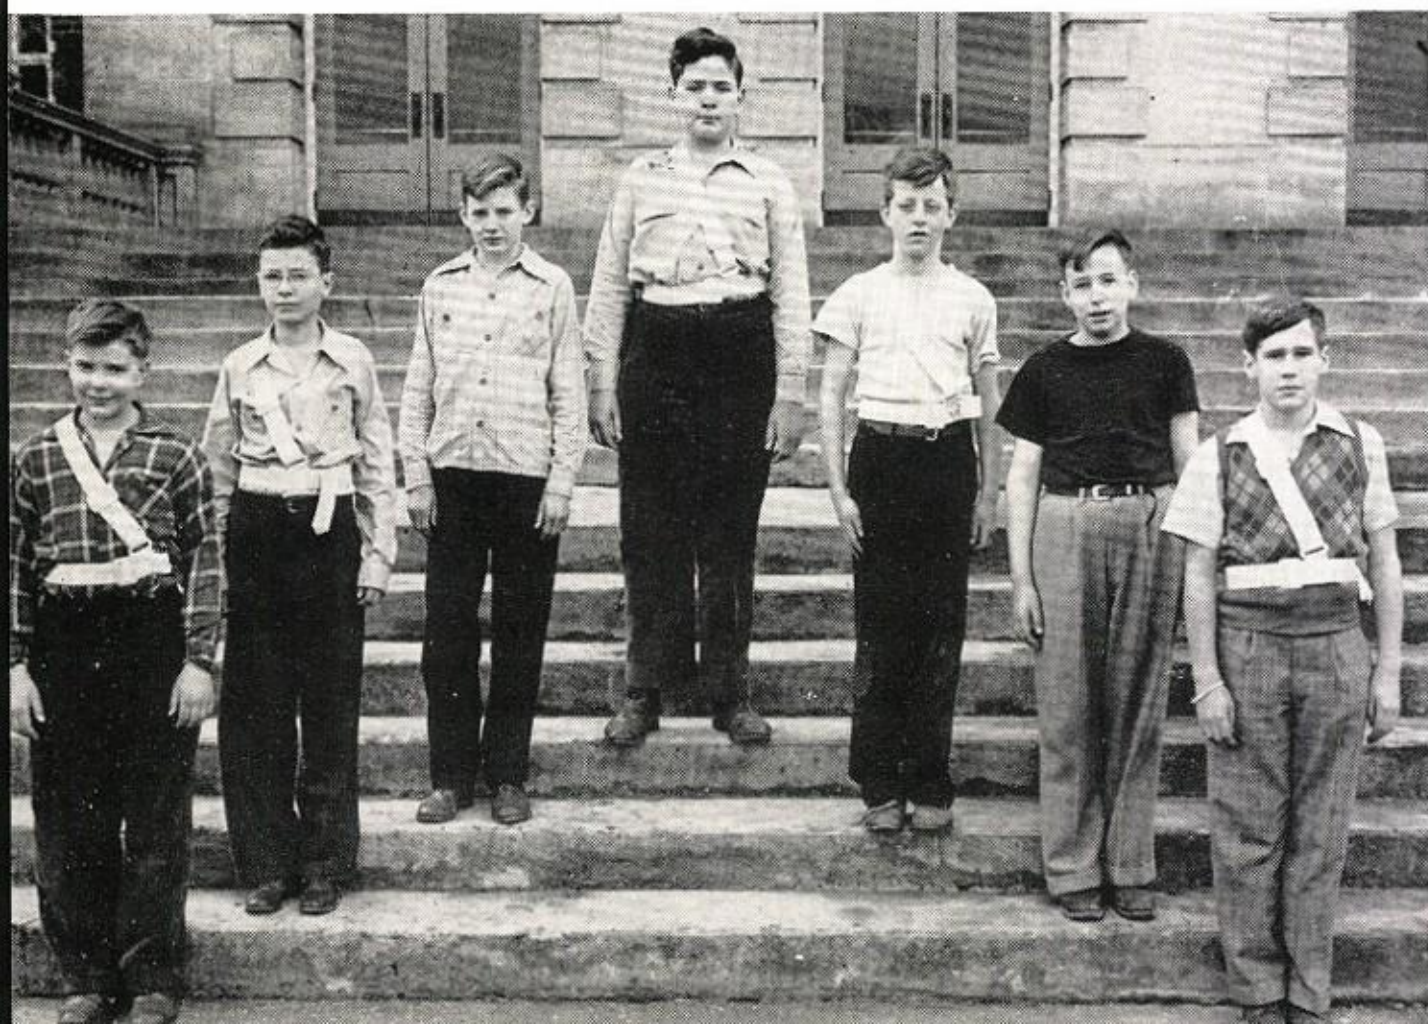

Monitors, volunteers from the student body, stay at various posts in the halls and lunch room during both lunch periods to see that the rules are kept by the students. The monitor system has worked very effectively since student government was inaugurated at West. At the end of the year all monitors receive school service letters.

T H E S A F E T Y C O U N C I L

The Safety Council is organized to promote safety first in our school activities. Under the sponsorship of Dr. Yarbrough, it is composed of students from the seventh and eighth grades. The main task of the representatives is to keep patrolmen at West End and Bowling Avenues.

Honorary members are the Editors of the West Wind, Editors of the ZEPHYR, and the Senior and Junior Class Officers. Faculty advisors are chosen by the council and approved by Dr. Yarbrough. A student council has been in existence since the school was founded.

The WEST WIND, bi-weekly student newspaper, is under the capable leadership of Miss Ella Haiman, who is in reality only the remote control of the paper. All the writing, editing, and make-up of the paper is in the hands of the Co-editors, Overton Lea and Peggy DuPre. Miss Florence Adams is the Art Advisor, and Miss Pauline Lamb is the Business Advisor.

In spite of war-time shortages, the WEST WIND has been kept up to par, and gives the students up-to-date news of school activities. Papers have also been sent to alumni both overseas and in the United States, so as to keep them up-to-date on their "old alma mater."

T H E B A N D

The West End High School Band was re-organized this year under the capable leadership of Mr. Hansen. They have added much to the pep meetings, and have given us many entertaining programs in the auditorium. The band consists of two groups: the advanced and the beginners classes.

J U N I O R H I G H K N I T T I N G C L U B

The Junior High Knitting Club is composed of a number of eighth grade girls, who wish to learn how to knit, or like to meet and knit together. This newly organized club is sponsored by Miss Inez Tolmie. Also, three of our leading seniors wished to help in the sponsorship and the leadership of this worthwhile club . . . our hats off to Bobby Cortner, Henry Booth and Tommy Smith-!!

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY OFFICERS

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society, under the capable leadership of Miss Frances, is made up of students whose scholastic average is above 90. Each year a formal initiation is held, based upon the four cardinal principles: Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character. Each member is awarded a certificate, and upon graduation a star is placed by each name to indicate membership in the Society. Also, a seal is placed upon each diploma.

THE QUILL AND SCROLL

The James G. Stahlman Chapter of the international honorary society for high school journalists, Quill and Scroll, is under the sponsorship of Miss Ann Dembsky. Various contests are held at meetings and the winners receive prizes or recognized in the Quill and Scroll magazine. In the spring, invitations are sent to those students interested in journalism, and whose scholastic rating is in the upper third of their class. Then, a formal initiation is held before the student body. This year was a most impressive ceremony with a large number being initiated.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

Wilhelm, Smith, Finney, Stringe, Brueck, Coker, Myers, Alder, Peiser, Primm, Bolles.

The Dramatic Club under the sponsorship of Mrs. Inez B. Alder had one of its most outstanding years. Several productions were given during the year, including "The Ghost Train," "Junior Miss," and the annual senior play. Its activities also include various auditorium programs, several one-act plays, and weekly radio programs conducted over WSIX. Members of the club have continued its fine record in winning honors in declamation and extemporaneous speaking.

The French Club, sponsored by Miss Anne Battle, was formed in the fall term, from a desire on the part of the French students to learn more about the country of France which has ranked among the most important for its cultural and intellectual standards. The Club, which meets once a month, ordered pins with the French national flower, the fleur-de-lis, as the design. Because of the great need for food and clothes in France, the club has adopted two French girls, both 17 years old, to each of whom it is sending a box every two weeks.
